

House Resolution No. 427

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who admirably demonstrate their true potential as lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders through the excellence of their achievements as students; and

Whereas, Tyler Griffith of Eldon, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a senior in business and marketing programs at the Eldon Career Center; and

Whereas, Tyler Griffith recently enhanced his already impressive record of accomplishment when he was selected as the 2008 Tech Prep Student of the Year by the Heart of Missouri Technical Education Consortium; and

Whereas, a leader in Distributive Education Clubs of America and Future Business Leaders of America, Tyler Griffith also is involved in Students Against Destructive Decisions, the Learn and Serve tutoring program, Keep the Drive Teen Advisory Panel sponsored by Allstate Foundation, canned food drives, Lee House, and the Eldon R-I Citizens for the Bond Issue and Professional Learning Committees; and

Whereas, a former job shadower with Senator Carl Vogel, Tyler Griffith currently works at the Eldon McDonalds, where he has progressed from a crew person to a shift manager who motivates and oversees a team of twenty employees; and

Whereas, Tyler Griffith is universally praised as an honest, hard-working, and trustworthy student who is always prepared, respectful, and a wonderful role model; and

Whereas, Tyler Griffith plans to continue his education at the State Fair Community College Lake Ozark campus and then transfer to Columbia College to complete a Master's degree in business management before opening his own real estate and mortgage loan business:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Tyler Griffith as the 2008 Heart of Missouri Technical Education Consortium Tech Prep Student of the Year and to convey this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Tyler Griffith, son of Donna Griffith and Robert Griffith.
